The Police and Fire Ret. Sys. of the City of Detroit v. Musk et al.,
C.A. No. 2020-0477-KSJM

Dear Counsel:

LinkedIn recently reported that I hit the heart-in-hand icon intended to show a sign of “support” concerning a LinkedIn post about Mr. Musk. I do not “support” the post. I also have not read the post, aside from the text visible in the screenshot that was sent by text to me last night.

I either did not click the “support” icon at all, or I did so accidentally. I do not believe that I did it accidentally. So, after learning of this issue last night, I logged into LinkedIn, searched for the post based on the screenshot, and tried to make sure that the support icon was not “clicked on.” I then reported the suspicious activity to LinkedIn. Today, my account was locked when I attempted to log in to check the status of my suspicious-activity report.

I had prepared this letter before I received the Motion for Recusal filed this evening. I will read that motion carefully and take the matter under advisement. These actions are stayed pending resolution of the Motion for Recusal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kathaleen St. Jude McCormick
