On 07/21/2017, the interviewing agent contacted Pras letting him know the FBI would be interested in receiving the full recording of the conversation he claimed was Kwok and [REDACTED]. The would need the entire recording including how and when the owner came to have control of it.

On the same day, Pras contacted the interview agent stating his contact, Jon, will request the recording. During the same conversation, Pras provided two names of U.S. persons (USPER) being held in China whom China would be willing to send home.

[REDACTED]: Supposedly a wanted fugitive of the U.S. and the subject of a Homeland Security Investigations request for extradition; and

[REDACTED]: a US Student arrested for a conflict with a taxi cab driver. An open source search found [REDACTED] was being held for an incident with a taxi driver, while defending his mother. Two U.S. Senators had petitioned China for his release. Reports show that [REDACTED] was released to return to the U.S on July 23, 2017.

Agent's note: Interviewing agents have spoken with Pras about any names of USPERs whom China are holding that they could release to return to the U.S. This topic followed from the discussion of the circumstances of the release/return of [REDACTED] (USPER), who had been held in China and returned to the U.S. on May 30, 2017.

On 07/27/2017, the interviewing agent met with Pras in Midtown Manhattan, NY to retrieve a thumb drive which Pras claimed contained recordings of a meeting between GUO and [REDACTED] as well as recordings of GUO speaking with his assistant in Chinese.

Pras stated he received these recordings from Jon in a zipped file which Pras opened and loaded into his personal computer's iTunes. Pras purchased a thumb drive and loaded the recordings onto the drive. Pras stated they did not tell him who provided the recordings but stated he
