Appointment By the Yuma County Sheriff, State of Colorado, And Oath of Office

I, Chad Day, Sheriff, Yuma County, State of Colorado, pursuant to 30-10-506, of the Colorado Revised Statues, do hereby appoint Robert L. Mercer as a "Deputy" of the Yuma County Sheriff, effective November 19th, 2016. For the purposes of this appointment and oath, a deputy is defined as any member of the Sheriff's Office, without respect to position, rank, or pay grade, whether they act as a state certified peace officer, or perform other duties. This deputy shall act under the lawful authority of the Yuma County Sheriff during my term in office, or until this appointment is revoked.

Chad Day Yuma County Sheriff

30-10-506 Deputies

Each sheriff may appoint as many deputies as the sheriff may think proper and may revoke such appointments at will; except that a sheriff shall adopt personnel policies, including policies for the review of revocation of appointments. Before revoking an appointment of a deputy, the sheriff shall notify the deputy of the reason for the proposed revocation and shall give the deputy an opportunity to be heard by the sheriff. Persons may also be deputized by the sheriff or undersheriff in writing to do particular acts.
